Board Sets Dates For Book Fair

At the August meeting of the Albany Library Board of Trustees a date was set for the upcoming Book Fair.

The Board has been planning the Book Fair since they learned that the Alameda County Library System, at the present time, does not have the budget leeway to maintain record collections in the branch libraries. The record collection at the Albany Library has been one of the most successful additions to the Library in recent years, and grows in enthusiastic reception with its growth in widening fields of music and story. Proceeds of the Book Fair will be used to maintain and add to the collection.

The date for the Book Fair is scheduled for Sept. 27 in the Library Patio from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and a drive is now on collecting books, old sheet music, pocket books, comic books, and other printed or interesting material.

The Board plans to have a large mailbox in front of the Library for the week before the Fair so that Albany citizens and patrons of the Library can "Drive Up and Drop In" book donations.

Anyone having book donations now can call Mrs. Raymond Paine, LA 5-1452; Mrs. Jerry Klemm, LA 6-3815; or Mrs. Norman Adler, LA 4-3233 and the books can be picked up.

All of Albany are invited to help make the Book Fair a record success.

Marin School Starts Carnival Workshops

"Marin Country Fair" is the theme for the Marin PTA fall carnival to be held Nov. 8 and the dates for the September workshops have been scheduled.

On Sept. 4, 11, and 25, the workshops will be at the home of Gail Gillis, 1080 Neilson from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. On Sept. 18 Carol Derry will be hostess to willing workers at her home, 1039 Peralta, at the same time. October workshops will be announced later.

Items for the homemaking booth will be created, so shoppers are urged to bring ideas and samples. Plans are to also work with felt, wool and elcorox bolts.

The workshops are "bring a sandwich and dessert but coffee will be served."

Marin PTA members are requested to save dish soap bottles, old nylons, coffee cans and material. For additional information, call Gail Gillis, 526-7082 or Carol Derry, 524-8560.

Note of Thanks

I wish to express my gratitude and heartfelt thanks to our Albany Police Dept., and to our courageous Fire Department and crew, who came on August 15 to my home in response to a call for help for my husband, Andrew Hartwig. Their courtesy and fine spirit as humane beings make me feel proud to live in the community they serve. My hat's off to both departments. Albany is lucky to have such fine civic employees.

Yours Most Gratefully,
 MRS. KAY HARTWIG

Resolutions Commending Clark, Sherman, Short Passed by Albany Council

Resolutions of commendation for Mayor Richard O. Clark, Senator Lewis F. Sherman and Senator Alan Short expressing appreciation for their successful participation and support in reference to Assembly Bill 2057 were passed unanimously by the Albany City Council at the general meeting Monday night, Aug. 25.

The Amendment of clarification to the Albany waterfront development was declared by Councilman Lewis Howell "a great victory for the City of Albany" as he expressed his personal tribute to Albany's Mayor for his aggressive and untiring effort in behalf of the Bill. The amendment, proposed by Senator Short, permitted Albany to continue with its waterfront development.

Bids for the planting of new street trees along residential city streets and removal of some of the existing trees and the replacement of removed curb, sidewalks and driveways following the removals and replanting were awarded to Davey Tree Surgeons, $20,190.98 for planting, and C. Repella & Sons, $6,727.50, for replacement.

Also on the agenda and granted was the application, resubmitted, of Reverend C. B. Turner, pastor of the True Guidance Baptist Church, Inc., of Richmond to solicit funds for the purpose of helping needy children to obtain school clothing.

Gerald D. Browne, Fire Chief, recommended Frank Gabriel Herrera be appointed probationary fireman in the fire department effective Sept. 1. The Council accepted the recommendation and ordered the necessary resolution be prepared. In other action, the Council also accepted the invitation from E. N. Boyce, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, to join them in honoring the PG&E at a luncheon on Sept. 25 at the Memorial Auditorium.

Under consideration at the Mayor's Conference is the hiring of a managerial staff. The proposed cost would be approximately $100 for small cities and $150 for large cities per month. In view of the past record of legislative aid and public development, Council voted to appropriate funds if such assessment is decided upon. Further criteria will be upcoming.

A resolution of commendation for Lester E. Springer, of the Albany post office, who is retiring was passed and will be prepared.

A brief hassle took place at the conclusion of the Council meeting over the current tax assessment rate by the County of Alameda. Councilman Hubert Call felt the Council should take strong action in regard to the assessments as they are presently being processed. Mrs. Jean Rutherford, from the audience, asked the Council to draw up a resolution asking for state investigation of the assessment rate. Councilman Call's motion for protest died for lack of a second. Councilman Howell's motion to refer to City Attorney Larry D. Saler for representation at the Board of Equalization was passed. Howell pointed out that there is an appeal board, legislation has set up a way to appeal, and appeal is specific.

Mrs. Rutherford was vocally unhappy with the decision of the Council. As she protested the action, adjournment was moved and passed.

NOTICE

Because of Labor Day weekend and the holiday on Monday, the Albany City Council will meet Tuesday night, Sept. 2.

Boy Scout Troop 19 Has Eventful Summer

Troop 19, sponsored by the Northbrae Community Church, has returned to town after an active and interesting summer program.

The first meeting is Sept. 10 at the Scout Hut, The Alameda and Solano Avenue (back of the church). Boys nearing 11 years of age and their fathers who are interested in a vital scouting program are invited to attend.

The summer started with a Court of Honor, the highlights of which were: the awarding of two Eagle ranks to Jim McKenna and Todd Bachman; the awarding of other ranks: tenderfoot, Dan Jordan; second class, Tom and John Allen; and first class, Mike Irwin, all of Berkeley.

Jim McKenna, Dennis Gilreath and Spencer Smith were awarded Merit Badges.

Among the special awards were the inspection award to Mike Irwin; the yearly inter-parade contest winner to the Jaguar Patrol, led by Kurt Jenkins; the outstanding service award, a fine knife and sheath donated by ex-scoutmaster Jack Murrow, to Jim McKenna and the special service award to Spencer Smith.

Troop 19 joined us in this court and made a very special award to Dexter Irwin for emergency services rendered during the two troops' skiing session at Camp Hiny last year.

In addition to the welcome presence of troop 19, the troop was honored by three ex-scoutmasters participating in the awards: John Ainsworth of Berkeley, Jack Murrow of El Cerrito, and Ed Eisner of Albany.

Three Troop 19 Eagle Scouts, Todd Bachman, Jim McKenna, and Dennis Gilreath, attended the National Jamboree in Idaho. The outstanding friendliness amongst the 37,000 scouts attending left a vivid memory. The encampment was organized for maximum enjoyment of fishing, swimming, hiking, and other scouting skills.

After the National Jamboree, the troop split into two units. One group led by Windy Smith, Amassa Cornish, and Bill Potts hiked a 60-mile back pack trip through the Tuolumne and Lyell canyons. Participating were: Tom Cornish, Todd Bachman, Kurt Jenkins, Charlie Potts, Spencer Smith, Mike Hunt and Bryan Fletcher. Several days exceeded 10 miles so these scouts are well on their way to the coveted hiking merit badge as well as having earned their 50 mile award.

The second group went directly to Diamond-O Scout camp.

Normal scout camp activities were supplemented by some fishing and an introduction to rock climbing. Emphasis was placed on short hikes near the Middle Fork of the Tuolumne and on burro packing. The troop now has three accomplished burro-masters: Mike Irwin, Dave Thompson, and Phil Alleness. This preparation, and the burros, enabled the two groups to rendezvous at Smith Meadows the last night of the back-pack trip for a grand feast featuring steak, hay area garlic French bread and Amassa Cornish's peach cobbler.

During the second week of camp the two groups essentially joined. Ed Bent was elected senior patrol leader for the camp. The highlights of this week were: a day or so of "mountain fever" suffered by most of the campers and several residents of Tuolumne County, 22 cal. trap shooting, and 14 hours of horsemanship consisting of both instruction and high Sierra Trail riding.

Fire Plug

Remember the old fable of the boy who cried wolf and then was destroyed by his own stupidity?

Today this story is repeated in the act of false fire alarms. The only difference with the fable is that the fire department must respond to all summons. Firemen do not know the situation until they arrive at the scene. The big loser in this play is the person who may have immediate need of emergency services while the fire department is involved answering a false alarm.

Fire Plug asks parents to impress upon their families the dangers and the possible fatal results of these false calls. All false alarms do not necessarily come from the corner fire alarm box. Some are received over the telephone.

Camille Funds Sought by Red Cross

The American Red Cross chapter in Berkeley requests concerned residents of Berkeley, Albany and Kensington to assist their unfortunate neighbors in the gulf states who are victims of Hurricane Camille.

This may be done by donating money to the Red Cross which will be used for emergency relief and recovery needs.

Mr. Arthur Bellman, chapter chairman, asks that donations be sent or brought to the chapter office at 2116 Allston Way, Berkeley, and that the money be designated for Hurricane Camille Victims.

The Berkeley chapter of Red Cross is to raise $7,066 as their part of a $6,000,000 nation-wide Red Cross emergency fund to be used for this current devastating disaster.

Red Cross president, General James F. Collins, explained that the emergency campaign was necessitated by the expected high cost for this relief operation and the fact that Red Cross reserves for disaster are severely limited due to costly emergency operations earlier this year. This is the first time since 1955 that a quota campaign has had to be initiated.

SENIOR CITIZENS

By Minnie Ingraham

With Labor Day just around the corner we're going to celebrate by having our Ogleby party on the day after, Tuesday, Sept. 2.

Non-members and friends are welcome, so call 526-1601 for a reservation to make sure of fun and food for that day. Delicious catered lunch at noon and then watch the prizes disappear.

We'll have reports of our FBI trip followed by lunch in exotic Cathay House in Chinatown in San Francisco in our next issue. The gracious manner in which the management caters to our special wishes assures us of a delectable meal, followed by time to ramble and roam among the fabulous shops of this district.

We are again saddened by the loss of a dear member . . . one of our strong sisters . . . Minnie Resnikoff has left us. She was in the midst of her family, apparently enjoying the culmination of a lifetime dream . . . a pilgrim visiting the Holy Land, and she succumbed in Jerusalem. Incapacitated as she was in recent months by illness, she was nevertheless with us in spirit and her noble efforts in our beginning struggle helped bring our goal to fruition. Our deepest sympathy to her family and dear ones. May she rest in peace!

Our craft classes keep adding to their repertoire . . . the latest thing being an adorable little gnome who keeps you from over-eating. Quite a delightful diet aid . . . a friendly little leprechuan.

How do you like the tax on telephone and light bills? Watch for some interesting developments by one of the people's champions before long.

Yes, it was our own Nettie Dixon who celebrated her 82nd birthday by going on a bus tour around the Bay, and was honored by AC Transit's hostess with an orchid and her picture in Thursday's Tribune. They didn't mention the perfectly delicious birthday cake we helped her eat on Friday. She is a dedicated worker in our Community Service group and her beautiful and artistic scrapbooks should be placed with paintings in a museum. They give hours of unalloyed joy and happiness to the lucky youngsters who get them while confined in a hospital. Dear Nettie, may we be with you on your 92nd birthday.

The shuffleboarders keep shuffling along . . . the weather is just right for it, and we look for keener competition when our visiting members return from vacations. Our knitters are knitting and purling and we shall have a sizeable amount of squares for Red Cross to assemble. Come and bring your yarn . . . have coffee with us and maybe gossip a little?

The bridge players seem to enjoy time spent at our Center on Fridays and non-members are welcome also.

A lonely little radio is waiting for a buyer . . . with a small amount of rehabilitation this would make an ideal gift for a shut-in or an "extra" for your own use. Call 526-1601 on this. A bientot!

Mr. and Mrs. Gary McCurdy

White gladiolas, stock and snapdragons decorated Newman Hall in Berkeley where the marriage of Mary Zugnoni, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zugnoni of Albany, to Gary McCurdy of San Francisco, took place.

Father Richard Callahan performed the ceremony.

Mary was gownned in a white floor-length dress covering ice-white taffeta with a chantilly lace bodice and an A-line skirt. Sequins accented the scooped neckline and her veil was held in place by a pearl tiara. She carried carnations with an orchid corsage in the center. She wore her mother's silver ring as a keepsake. She was given in marriage by her father.

Acting as matron of honor was Mrs. Ronald Palmer, sister of the groom. Her gown was floor-length yellow dotted Swiss trimmed with Venice lace in the

Berke-Harris Nuptials

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Harris

Doreen Berke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Berke of Albany, married Gerald Lee Harris of Oakland at the Temple Beth El with Rabbi Arthur Abrams officiating at the late afternoon ceremony.

Gowned in white silk organza of A-line design with the front panel and wedding ring collar outlined with peau d'ange lace, the bride's cathedral veil and head piece were trimmed with matching lace and seed pearls. She carried a nosegay of white baby roses and stephanotis. The sister of the bride, Mrs. Roy E. Hill of Concord, attended her as matron of honor. She wore a cage line gossamer sheer dress trimmed in daisy motif of yellow with matching accessories. She carried a nosegay of yellow daisies trimmed with yellow ribbons. Mrs. Moses Sanchez of Oakland, Miss Katherine Stephens of Albany, Miss Susan Katzborg of Concord, Mrs. Douglas Marshall of Oakland and Miss Patricia Alameda of Albany served as bridesmaids and wore burnt orange gossamer sheer dresses also styled on the cage line. They also carried nosegays of daisies. The flowergirls, nieces of Miss Berke, wore miniature copies of the same dress as their mother, Mrs. Hill. They carried showers of daisies.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harris of Sacramento, chose as his best man, Steven Geister of Oakland. Ushers were Moses Sanchez of Oakland, Jeffery Ruvkin of Sacramento, Monty Berke of Seattle and Gary Klang of Oakland.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Berke, mother of the bride, wore a green crepe dress with a beaded neckline. Her flowers were green cymbidiums. The bridegroom's mother wore a lighter shade of green, her dress accented with pleated chiffon. She also wore green cymbidiums. Decorations in the church carried out the daisy theme. The reception was in the form of a sit down dinner at Spengers in Berkeley.

The young couple honeymooned at Lake Tahoe.

Doreen was a Albany High School graduate of the 1966 class. Her new husband served in Vietnam where he received the Purple Heart and Bronze Star. They will make their home in El Cerrito.
